About our presentation:

The Emotional Connection to Time Management

Time management may be more than just getting organized, and clearing out distractions. There is a link tied to our cognitive functioning and emotions/mood when dealing with time. Let's learn ways to organize, and bring awareness to emotions that create the distractions.

About our presenter:

Devonderia Sanchez, LMFT

Licensed Marriage and Family Therapist, #83796

Devonderia Sanchez is a Licensed Marriage and Family Therapist, and has been in the mental health field for over 21 years. She is a proud graduate of Langston University in Oklahoma where she received her Bachelor of Arts degree in Sociology. She also holds a Master's Degree in General Psychology/Human Behavior from National University, and a Master's Degree from Chapman University in Psychology with an Emphasis on Marriage and Family Therapy.

Program Spotlight: Rise Above Youth Empowerment Program

Alyssa Blue, Program Coordinator

- Rise Above Youth Empowerment Program is a 3-year mentorship program for college youth and middle/high school youth.
- Community events will aim to raise awareness, increase prevention education, provide youth a safe space to learn, be active in their community, and advocate for themselves.
- Goals include:
  - To improve the quality of life in African American/Latinx 2S/LGBTQ+ youth by providing them with coping skills, extra curricular activities, resources, and help in the rural cities in Kings County
  - To reduce the yearly overdose in young adults in Kings County that is currently at 18.3% and reducing the 44.3% of hospitalizations of drug overdose and drug poisoning in the target population.
- Mentors 18+
- Mentees (middle school to high school)
