- ❖ Julia has extra flyers printed for anyone who needs some.
- ❖ Speaker
 - Her flight has been booked.
 - The group viewed her music video which will be shown at the luncheon.
 - She will have a table to sell her book and jewelry line.
 - She would love to have coffee and talk with anyone who would like to talk after the luncheon.
- ❖ Food
 - Chicken fajitas, rice, refried beans, fruit, brownies, cookies
- ❖ Table linens have been ordered.
- ❖ Centerpieces - Soroptimist to decorate with a white hydrangea/lacey rose centerpieces. They will be sold for a donation to a list of organizations. Envelopes will be on the tables.
- ❖ We have 10 resource tables which are full with a few organizations sharing.
- ❖ Human Services will provide the projector & laptop to play videos. Julia will send them the videos to preload and make sure it all works.
- ❖ Human Services will also provide an interpreter and headsets.
- ❖ Champions has plenty of flags to line the sidewalks.
- ❖ Fleet & Family has ordered the purple ribbons and will provide the silent witness display.
- ❖ We will be using the stage riser on the floor for the speaker. Linda will check with Hanford Mall about using their skirt.
- ❖ Champions will have men from Samuel's House to help set-up/serve/clean-up. The group decided they want the women from Hannah's House to be guests this year as they are our targeted audience.
